POWER OF ATTORNEY

(with arbitration clause)

The undersigned :

hereby authorises :

with power of substitution, to represent and appear on his/her behalf for the following purpose :

The attorney shall have the widest powers to do whatever he/she considers as necessary or useful for the purposes of executing the mandate.

In particular, and pursuant to article 396 par. 3 of the Code of Obligations, the attorney shall have the power :

- to represent the client before any jurisdiction, authority, administration, arbitration tribunal, insurance company, bank, Swiss or foreign institution, official or private assembly and towards all third parties.
- to sign all deeds, acts, instruments, documents or requisitions on behalf of the client,
- to commence proceedings, elect domicile in any jurisdiction, conclude arbitration agreements and do all that may be necessary for the instruction of any proceedings until final judgement,
- to settle, abandon or agree any action, wholly or partially,
- to receive all cash or securities or any other objects of any kind including those which are subject to dispute and to dispose thereof, to make and carry out all payments.

The death, declaration of absence, incapacity or bankruptcy of the client shall not terminate this power of attorney.

The client undertakes to pay to the attorney all provisions necessary for the performance of his/her mandate. The client undertakes to reimburse all costs, expenses or advances which might have been incurred by the attorney as well as his/her fees.

The client and the attorney hereby expressly agree to accept the jurisdiction of the Commission of taxation in matters of attorney's fees, with seat in Geneva as the arbitration tribunal for all disputes arising out of this agreement pursuant to article 40 of the Geneva law on the profession of advocate.

This agreement is governed by Swiss law.
